ABOUT US

We are Vinyl Revival, a Parrish, Florida-based band brought together by one thing we all share—a love for great music and the energy of playing it live.

Our sound brings together classic rock, Southern rock, and favorites from the past. We play the songs we grew up with, the songs we still turn up today, and the songs that make people want to sing along, dance, and have a good time.

We come from different generations and musical backgrounds, and that's a big part of who we are. Each of us brings something different to the stage, but when we play together, it all comes back to the same thing: great music, great energy, and connecting with the crowd.

Whether we're playing a local venue, festival, community event, or private party, our goal is simple—we want everyone to have as much fun listening to the music as we have playing it.

We're not trying to reinvent the classics. We're here to bring them back to life. Because great music never goes out of style... it just needs the needle dropped again.
